BY LAW NO 2

Reciprocal agreement to be formalised and ratified by TMU3A and BU3A

The intent of the reciprocal agreement between TMU3A and BU3A is to provide members of both U3As the opportunity to enrol in additional or alternative activities offered by either U3A through reciprocal attendee status. Members of either U3A may enrol in courses offered by their counterpart U3A in accordance with any bylaw or requirement stipulated by the counterpart U3A.

TMU3A By Law No 2, specific to TMU3A

The intent of the reciprocal agreement between TMU3A and BU3A is to provide members of both U3As the opportunity to enrol in additional or alternative activities offered by either U3A through reciprocal attendee status.

A TMU3A reciprocal course arrangement applies only when a member of TMU3A is able to enrol in a course offered by another designated U3A such as BU3A.

Members from other U3As able to join TMU3A courses under reciprocal agreements are required to pay regular fees for those courses. They are also precluded from involvement in any policy or procedural decisions concerning the TMU3A courses in which they are participating. Failure to observe this requirement will result in refusal or termination of reciprocal attendee status.

Members of U3As participating in an approved reciprocal arrangement should contact the counterpart U3A offering reciprocal courses to obtain information and enrolment advice.

BY LAW NO 3

If a tutor is no longer able to conduct an ongoing course, the committee will appoint a replacement tutor after consulting with the outgoing tutor, if possible.
